

FAX: 488 4615

W H A T ' S O N

E-MAIL: gilliant@cn.independent.co.za

■ Zip Zap Circus stars Wandisile Mtshula, Timothy Megan, Jose do Rego, Josh Weber and Amy Weber will perform at Cavendish Square.

Zip Zappers up to their tricks

ROLL up to Cavendish Square for some fun antics with the Zip Zap Children's Circus at 6pm on Fridays April 28 and May 5, 12 and 26 and you could win free movie tickets for a year.

The circus includes children from Patrick House (a home for former Cape Town street children).

They learn trapeze, clowning, juggling, unicycling, tightrope walking and acrobatics.

To tie in with Cavendish Square's Friday late night shopping times, a competition will be run on each of these Friday evenings.

Prizes are a Sony Playstation, CD vouchers worth R2 000, an MTN Pay As You Go kit with a Nokia 3210 and a year's movie tickets.

The competition is open to shoppers who have spent R50 or more between 6pm and 9pm that evening at a Cavendish Square shop. A prize draw will take place each Friday at 9pm in the centre court.

Parents can drop off their children at Never Never Land after the circus where, for only R10, they can play and receive a goody bag, leaving mom and dad to enjoy a leisurely shopping experience.

For more information call centre information on 671 8042.

The Zip Zap website is at: <http://www.kids-unlimited-expo.com>.

Calling all Van Renen, Van Reenen, Vanrenen family members

ALL members of the Van Renen/Van Reenen/Vanrenen family are invited to a family reunion from Saturday September 23 until Monday September 25 at the Courtyard Hotel in Cape Town on the site of the Valkenberg Farm previously owned by the family.

Accommodation will be available at various hotels in Cape Town, and the itinerary includes wine tasting, a spit braai, a commemoration service (in English and Afrikaans), a presentation of the history of the family and visits to family cultural sites in Cape Town.

Optional day tours include trips to Darling, Langebaan, Saldanha and various farms and the West Coast.

For details contact Jacob Duckitt van Renen at jvrenen@netactive.co.za.

The family is very keen to locate their oldest member. If you know of any candidates, contact Jacob van Renen at the above e-mail address.

Aclassical musical feast

VESPERS by Mozart, and Easter Oratorio by Bach will be performed at St George's Cathedral, Cape Town on Sunday May 7.

The same concert will be repeated on Friday May 12 at Endler Hall, Stellenbosch, with Mark Mitchel conducting.

The Sumpny Choir of Cape Town will also appear. Contact 797 2038, for details and bookings.

Lounge Fashions for moms

A SHOW of lounge clothes for Mother's Day, will take place on Tuesday May 9 at 10am at Restaurant Zanzibar.

Tickets are available from the centre management office at R65 a person which includes breakfast. R20 of each ticket will be donated to the Conrad Hoen-son Trust Fund.

Conrad was paralyse while body surfing last year. The clothes will be provided by the shops in Constantia Village Shopping Centre.

A tour of SA history

VISIT Vanrhynsdorp, an important area in the last stages of the Anglo Boer War, with the Simon van der Stel Foundation on Friday May 5 and Saturday May 6. A local historian will guide visitors around the district, including the Ironstone Forts erected by Colonel Haig, the homestead where the rebels laid down their arms and the ruins of the house where General Smuts sentenced the traitor Colyn to death. Also included will be a visit to the old jail, the site of the battle on the farm Windoek, visit the Doring River Bridge where 1 000 British engaged Field Marshal Myburgh and visit the graveyards of Boer and Brit forces. For details call Pat Benbow Hebbert at 794 7464 from Monday to Friday.

WESTCOTT PRIMARY SCHOOL

FOREST WALK

Where: Tokai Forest

When: Saturday 6 May

Time: 9.00 am

You could win R1000 in our LUCKY DRAW!!!

Entry FEE R5 per person. Tickets available from school.

Ph: 712 6600

FAMILY AND FRIENDS WELCOME

ALL PROCEEDS TOWARDS OUR COMPUTER CENTRE

